21st ANNUAL
NEWARK
BLACK FILM FESTIVAL

1995 marks the 21st season of the Newark Black Film Festival, a summer festival of films by black filmmakers and films featuring the history and culture of black people in America and elsewhere. In the twenty years since it began in 1974, the Newark Black Film Festival has attracted a national reputation and has been called the best and longest running festival of its kind in the nation. It has been recognized by The New York Times, The Star-Ledger, Variety and the Village Voice among other media. Since 1977, a committee representing the sponsors and the community has arranged the Festival and selected the films. In the past twenty years, 447 films have been viewed by an audience of over 84,667 adults and children.
